Missions Prayer Focus:

Open Doors - Persecuted Christians

"The persecution of Christians is worse today 'than at any time in history.'" This is a quote on Wikipedia which has an article especially highlighting the International Day of Prayer (IDOP) for the Persecuted Church. Tens of thousands of churches around the world commemorate the first Sunday of November to especially pray for Christians in hostile situations. We here at Clinton Frame Church are doing our promotion today with the assistance of the Open Doors mission. Open Doors is one of a few organizations putting lots of effort into this need. Open Doors keeps track of what's going on in hostile countries, promotes prayer and also gets involved in on-the-ground material and other kinds of assistance in these needy situations. There is a table in the foyer on which are materials you can pick up to help you to get involved in praying for these persecuted Christians.

Our Mission:

Making and launching disciples of Jesus to transform our world.
