6:30 pm Worship Team

Are you looking for a way to get involved at Clinton Frame? The tech and worship teams are looking to add a few people in various roles. If you would like to know more about the opportunities on either team please contact DeWayne Bontrager or Jennifer Archer.

Summer Ladies Bible study, will begin Tuesday, July 5. We will be using Kelly Minter’s, Encountering God, a 7 week study, unpacking biblical foundations for spiritual disciplines. Mary Ann Stutzman will lead. Contact Pat Yoder 574-536-3831 by Friday, June 24, if you can attend.

We’ve been given a Great Commission by Christ himself. Jesus commands us to “Go and make disciples.” The good news is, we can! God can so use YOU and me to love and impact and reach those around us—and this can be done in fun and creative ways you’ve probably not considered. Come to “Impact Group” for 90 minutes every other Saturday morning. Listen in, learn, pray and be equipped and empowered for the greater work Jesus Christ longs to do—in me and you. The next group meets Saturday, June 25, 9:30 am in Connections Café! Questions? Call/text Pastor Chet 330-556-6643.

Senior Adults carry-in meal and entertainment. Sunday, July 10 following morning worship. There will be sign up sheets at the tables in the joint Sunday School class.

HSM Alaska Mission Trip Offering. The high school youth have been asked by Praying Pelican Missions (the organization leading their trip) to bring a donation to give to the agencies they will be serving. This is above trip costs, which are already covered. The goal is to raise $2,000. Thanks to those who have already donated, we have raised just over $800. If you are interested in helping us reach our goal of $2,000 please visit the table in the foyer for more information and envelopes to make a donation. Please have all donations turned in today.

Aubrey Hunsberger is a local licensed mental health counselor who will begin seeing clients every other Friday, beginning June 24, in the Clinton Frame prayer room. With a background in ministry and inner healing prayer, Aubrey has worked with those dealing with anxiety, depression, grief/loss, addictions, eating disorders, and anyone seeking a deeper relationship with others and Jesus. To make an appointment, call Hope Wellness Center at (574)830-5778 and mention Clinton Frame. The cost of each 45-60 minute session is $60, and the Brotherhood fund will pay for six sessions for any regular attendee. Contact Pastor Julie for more information.

Save the date for a Comforter Bash! Make plans to join us on November 11 and 12 for the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) Great Lakes Comforter Bash in Goshen. People of all ages are invited to knot comforters at Pleasant View Church (58529 County Road 23). For more information about the event visit mcc.org/goshen-comforter-bash or contact LaVera Schlabach at 574-538-9629. A handmade comforter provides not only warmth but also a tangible message to people that their needs are not forgotten.

MCC Webinar: Welcoming Asylum Seekers - Tuesday, June 21 at 2-3:15 pm EDT - Asylum seekers, like refugees, are migrants who flee their homes due to a fear of violence or persecution. Join MCC and partners to learn more about who asylum seekers are and the many ways the faith community can walk alongside them in their journey to find safe refuge. In this webinar, Katherine Smith, MCC's Border and Migration Coordinator will share about what families experience at the U.S.-Mexico border. Cecilia Valenzuela from Casa Mariposa Detention Visitation Center will share about the need for accompaniment for asylum seekers currently in detention. Jessica Sapalio, program coordinator for Unitarian Universalists Service Coordinator's Congregational Accompaniment Program for Asylum Seekers and Rev. Chris McNabb, Neighbor to Neighbor Program Manager for Episcopal Migration Ministries, will share about programs to help churches sponsor asylum seekers in their own community. The webinar will be in English with Spanish interpretation. Register at: mcc.org/webinar-welcoming-asylum-seekers.

All activities and announcements and prayer concerns for the Bulletin and Happenings are due by 10 am on Thursday.

Office Hours: Monday—Thursday, 9 am-3 pm.
