Sign up sheets are at the info center for Wednesday Evening Adult Class opportunities:

- Join Colin Yoder for a look at the life of King David and Psalms he wrote. This Bible study discussion group will focus on a few stories regarding David and some of the Psalms attributed to him. Note: This class will begin on 1/25
- We've all been in circumstances that cause our minds to spin with unproductive, destructive, and harmful thoughts. It's easy to feel overwhelmed and wonder why we keep falling into the same thought patterns. Based on Psalm 23, Pastor Julie Lehman will lead a study of the Lou Giglio book Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table.
- Ladies Bible study, led by Kris Kuaffman, will use Kelly Minter's 7-week study of Ruth entitled Loss, Love & Legacy. Most of us enjoy a good rags-to-riches story, especially one that includes intrigue and moving tale of love. This study is also offered on Tuesdays at 9 am, Led by Mary Ann Stutzman. You can sign up in the foyer or contact Pat Yoder (574) 536-3831 by January 8 to reserve a participant's guide.

All activities and announcements and prayer concerns for the Bulletin and Happenings are due by 10 am on Thursday.

Office Hours: Monday—Thursday, 9 am-3 pm.

Sonshine Daycare located in Millersburg is in need of teachers or they may need to close their doors. They are hiring part and full time teachers (no teaching degree is needed) with pay $13/hr. Hours available between 9 am– 5 pm. They are very flexible and are willing to work with any schedule. Contact the Director of Sonshine Daycare, Rachel William, at (574)-218-2478. Spread the word for those needing something to do or some income while serving God's precious little ones.
